Coimisiún na Scrúduithe Stáit
State Examinations Commission

LEAVING CERTIFICATE EXAMINATION, 2023

HISTORY - HIGHER LEVEL

FIELD OF STUDY: EARLY MODERN, 1492-1815

Written examination: 400 marks
Pre-submitted Research Study Report: 100 marks

WEDNESDAY, 14 JUNE – AFTERNOON, 2.00-4.50

Use ONE of the following sets of instructions:

1. Usual instructions:

- Section 1 (100 marks)
Documents-based question (Ireland: Topic 2)
Answer all parts of this section.

- Section 2 (100 marks)
Ireland: Topics 1, 3, 4, 5, 6.
Answer one question from one topic.

- Section 3 (200 marks)
Europe and the wider world:
Topics 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6.
Answer one question from each of two topics.

OR

2. Alternative instructions for 2023 only:

- Section 1 (100 marks)
Documents-based question (Ireland: Topic 2)
Answer all parts of this section.

- Sections 2 & 3 (300 marks)
Ireland: Topics 1, 3, 4, 5, 6 and
Europe and the wider world: Topics 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6.

Answer three questions from any two topics in Sections 2 & 3.

Do not hand up this question paper.

It will not be returned to the State Examinations Commission.

The 2023 examination papers were adjusted to compensate for disruptions to learning due to COVID-19.
This examination paper does not necessarily reflect the same structure and format as the examination papers of past or subsequent years.

SECTION 1: DOCUMENTS-BASED QUESTION

Ireland: Topic 2
Rebellion and conquest in Elizabethan Ireland, 1558-1603

Case study to which the documents relate:
Elizabethan Dublin

Study the documents opposite and answer the questions below.

1. (a) In document A, what was one measure agreed by the mayor and the aldermen?

   (b) How are suspicious characters to be treated, according to document A?

   (c) In document B, what was one way in which Wicklow provided refuge for the rebels?

   (d) What was one loss suffered by the gentlemen in document B?

   (20)

2. (a) Do the documents agree on the threat posed by the rebels to Dublin?
   Refer to both documents in your answer.

   (b) Which document puts the events it describes in the wider context?
   Refer to both documents in your answer.

   (20)

3. (a) What is the value of document A as a historical source on Elizabethan Dublin?
   Make reference to the document in your answer.

   (b) Would you consider document B to be an objective source?
   Give reasons for your answer, referring to the document.

   (20)

4. In what ways did Dublin change during the reign of Elizabeth I?

   (40)

- Document A -

This is an edited extract from 'Civic Regulations for the Protection of the City' which shows the strengthening of Dublin's defences during the Nine Years' War.

1598: For better defence of the city in this time of rebellion, it is agreed that two men guard each gate every day and the same number every night, the cost to be borne by the citizens. If any alarm arises in the suburbs [areas outside the city's walls] the gate is to be opened to let in the women and children, but no men of the suburbs are to be admitted.

1599: At night it is necessary that care be taken for the safety of the suburbs as the rebels are lurking near the city. At a meeting of the mayor and the aldermen today it was agreed that the number guarding the suburbs be doubled, the watch kept within the walls to remain the same. The gates to be shut at 8 o'clock at night, but the wickets [small gates within larger gates] are to stay open for another hour.

1600: The wardens should make a note of all Irishmen who come into the city. If any are found to be of a suspicious character they should be brought before Mr. Mayor and asked to state their business. Mr. Mayor should not allow any gunpowder or weapons to pass out through any gate, except with the permission of the Council. And no strange beggars are to be allowed into the city.

Source: Constantia Maxwell, Irish History from Contemporary Sources, 1509-1610 (London, 1923).

- Document B -

The 'Description of Dublin', from which this is an edited extract, was written in 1598.

In the county of Dublin there are some in rebellion. Nearby, Wicklow provides refuge for rebels as it is full of woods and hills where they lurk. It has plenty of pasture so their cattle cannot be driven off, and there are few entrances and exits from the county.

There the rebels remain all day, within four or five miles of Dublin, which they threaten. Its citizens must keep strong watch in case the rebels set the suburbs on fire, as they have done previously.

The rebels are allies of Tyrone [Hugh O'Neill] and they cause most mischief when our forces leave Dublin to tackle him. Then they engage in burning and preying to distract our men from their campaign against him. Generally, they hope to weaken our forces so that we may be defeated, or made less able to deal severely with Tyrone.

All the gentlemen between Dublin and the Wicklow mountains suffer great loss of their goods daily, and sometimes they lose their lives.

Source: Edmund Hogan (ed.), Description of Ireland and the State thereof as it is this present anno 1598 (Dublin and London, 1878).

SECTION 2: IRELAND

Refer to the instructions on the front cover when choosing which question(s) to answer.

Ireland: Topic 1

Reform and Reformation in Tudor Ireland, 1494-1558

1. What were key initiatives of Sir Edward Poynings or Sir Anthony St Leger? (100)
2. To what extent did religious change take place in Ireland during the reigns of Henry VIII and Edward VI? (100)
3. What was distinctive about marriage and family life in Gaelic Ireland? (100)
4. Why did Queen Mary I embark on a policy of plantation and to what extent had the Laois-Offaly Plantation developed by the end of her reign (1558)? (100)

Ireland: Topic 3

Kingdom versus colony – the struggle for mastery in Ireland, 1603-1660

1. How did relations between natives and settlers in Ulster develop during the period 1603-1641? (100)
2. What were the main features of Cromwell's military campaign in Ireland and of the Cromwellian land settlement? (100)
3. What was the religious and cultural importance of Louvain and other Irish colleges abroad? (100)
4. What view of Ireland do you associate with Keating's Foras Feasa and/or Piaras Feiritéar? (100)

Ireland: Topic 4

Establishing a colonial ascendancy, 1660-1715

1. What notable developments were there in Restoration Dublin? (100)
2. What was the contribution to Irish affairs of Richard Talbot, 1st Earl of Tyrconnell and/or Frances Jennings, Duchess of Tyrconnell? (100)
3. What was the cultural and political importance of the Jacobite poets and/or Dáibhí Ó Bruadair? (100)
4. What was the importance of Samuel Louis Crommelin and/or Robert Boyle? (100)

Ireland: Topic 5

Colony versus kingdom – tensions in mid-18th-century Ireland, 1715-1770

1. What did you learn about society and economy, 1715-1770, from your study of two of the following: population change; women and rural society; the Whiteboys? (100)
2. What role did the Ponsonbys play in Irish affairs, 1715-1770? (100)
3. What were the Penal Laws and to what extent were they relaxed during the period 1715-1770? (100)
4. What was the importance of the Cúirteanna Filíochta or the writings of Dean Swift? (100)

Ireland: Topic 6

The end of the Irish kingdom and the establishment of the Union, 1770-1815

1. What did you learn about society and economy, 1770-1815, from your study of two of the following: population growth; rural discontent; the rise of Belfast? (100)
2. How important a part did Wolfe Tone and/or Mary Anne McCracken play in Irish affairs? (100)
3. Why did the Wexford Rebellion or the passing of the Act of Union prove contentious? (100)
4. What was the contribution to Georgian culture of two of the following: architecture; art; literature and learning? (100)

SECTION 3: EUROPE AND THE WIDER WORLD

Refer to the instructions on the front cover when choosing which question(s) to answer.

Europe and the wider world: Topic 1

Europe from Renaissance to Reformation, 1492-1567

1. What did Seville, the port of the New World and/or Jacob Fugger contribute to trade and banking in Europe? (100)
2. From your study of the Renaissance what did you learn about developments in humanism and the arts? (100)
3. How successful was Charles V in tackling the political and religious challenges that he faced? (100)
4. What was the distinctive contribution of Calvin's Geneva to the Reformation? (100)

Europe and the wider world: Topic 2

Religion and power: politics in the later 16th century, 1567-1609

1. What did you learn of economic crises in Europe, 1567-1609, including the decline of the port of Antwerp? (100)
2. What was the importance of Sir Walter Raleigh and/or the Spanish Armada? (100)
3. What were key developments in printing and popular literature and/or astronomy? (100)
4. What was the importance of two of the following: decisions reached at the close of the Council of Trent; the Jesuit mission in China; Jacobus Arminius? (100)

Europe and the wider world: Topic 3

The eclipse of Old Europe, 1609-1660

1. What did Marie de' Medici or Cardinal Richelieu contribute to the affairs of France? (100)
2. What were the fortunes of the Dutch empire in Asia, 1609-1660? (100)
3. What did Galileo Galilei and/or René Descartes contribute to the rise of empirical science? (100)
4. What was the contribution to European culture of one or more of the following: Claudio Monteverdi; Peter Paul Rubens; Gian Lorenzo Bernini? (100)

Europe and the wider world: Topic 4

Europe in the age of Louis XIV, 1660-1715

1. What was the role of two of the following in the France of Louis XIV: Jean Baptiste Colbert; Sébastien le Prestre de Vauban; Madame de Maintenon? (100)
2. How did trading companies such as the (English) East India Company and/or the development of the money market contribute to social and economic change, 1660-1715? (100)
3. Who achieved more for his country, John Sobieski or Peter the Great? Argue you case, referring to both. (100)
4. What was the importance of one of the following: the Grand Tour; debates within the sciences (Cartesians versus Newtonians); the evolution of the family? (100)

Europe and the wider world: Topic 5

Establishing empires, 1715-1775

1. How enlightened a ruler was Frederick the Great, King of Prussia and/or Catherine the Great, Empress of Russia? (100)
2. What was the importance of two of the following: the West Indies slave plantations; mercantilism and laissez-faire; Robert Clive? (100)
3. What did two of the following contribute to the communication of ideas: the novel; the newspaper; the salon; the spread of literacy? (100)
4. What were the causes of the American Revolution? (100)

Europe and the wider world: Topic 6

Empires in revolution, 1775-1815

1. What caused revolution to break out in France in 1789 and what was the role of the Committee of Public Safety in the French Revolution? (100)
2. During the period 1789-1815, why were church-state relations difficult in France and in Napoleonic Europe? (100)
3. What were the social and economic effects of one of the following: the end of feudalism and the nobility; the abolition of the slave trade; the emancipation of the Jews? (100)
4. What stimulated cultural nationalism in Europe and what forms did it take? (100)

Copyright notice

This examination paper may contain text or images for which the State Examination Commission is not the copyright owner, and which may have been adapted, for the purpose of assessment, without the author's prior consent. This examination paper has been prepared in accordance with Section 53(5) of the Copyright and Related Rights Act, 2000. Any subsequent use for a purpose other than the intended purpose is not authorised. The Commission does not accept liability for any infringement of third-party rights arising from unauthorised distribution or use of this examination paper.

Do not hand up this question paper.

It will not be returned to the State Examinations Commission.

Leaving Certificate - Higher Level

History

Wednesday 14th June
Afternoon 2:00 - 4:50